RED CRACKLE HEADREST

$180

Late 20th Century • China • Wood, Lacquer • Collection #CDKZ071

W: 11.5" D: 6.0" H: 7.25"

This low, four-leg stool is actually a headrest used atop a daybed or mat to support the head while sleeping, reclining, or smoking opium. As an opium accessory, rigid headrests such as this allowed an inebriated smoker to more comfortably lie on their side and maintain a view of their opium lamp.

This example recreates traditional forms with a splayed leg design that supports a gently curved top rest. The headrest is cloaked in a red-and-black lacquer finish for a pop of bright color and crackled texture.
