W: 19.0" D: 22.0" H: 36.5"

American designer Adrian Pearsall is renowned for his trademark "Atomic Age" look that made his furniture all the rage in the 1950s and 1960s, and a sought-after collectible today. We took the chair in a new direction and upholstered it in striking lavender-colored hair on hide laser-cut with ribbon of swirling butterflies. Designed with Pearsall's iconic tall trapezoidal backs, this vintage chair has a beautiful skyscraper-like silhouette. The simple classic form and luxurious upholstery sits as beautifully with antique-filled rooms decor as it does with modern décor. Continued...
